A Shoulder to Cry On. These days, Dr. Rosemary Martoma, a Boca Raton pediatrician, is treating something other than kids' physical ailments. It's what she calls "the silent epidemic" of children living with the trauma of having an incarcerated parent. In 2016, she and her children, Joshua, Ava and David, started the nonprofit KidsMates to raise awareness of the adverse impact of parental incarceration on children and to promote changes within institutions important to their welfare ...
