students have to guess which statement is the lie by using the noun clause question format “Is it really true that ...?” This activity works well in groups of 5-8 students. This group size allows for ample opportunity to practice the noun clause idiom, without having many students stay silent too long while awaiting a turn.

A noun clause is a clause that functions as a noun. Like all clauses, a noun clause has a subject and a verb. Lots of noun clauses start with 'that,' 'how,' or a 'wh'-word (e.g., 'why,' 'what'). Noun clauses can function as subjects, objects, or complements. This page has lots of examples of noun clauses and an
