I've read the other books in the First Comes Love series, but Finally, Forever is the part of Dylan and Gray's story that has been a long time coming. It really can be read as a stand-alone, but I hope that readers who read this first will fall in love with Gray and Dylan as much as I have and decide to read their story from the beginning.

Gray's still furious and frustrated with her, and the two of them resume that sexy tension they shared in First Comes Love. Soon enough, despite Gray's resistance, the tension becomes strong enough to bring them together into that same love-blind haze as before. But when it comes down to it, Gray fears it might not last. Dylan, after all, is Dylan.
