Football After School Patricia Mccarthy

To her, there will be challenges and struggles from which she cannot protect him. The prospect of 'football after school' fears her, as he "dribbles the sun about the place", which conveys how she thinks the football, as the "sun", will become his life, and will become his focus rather than his mother. Her son will be covered in mud 'warpaint' and speak another language, a language which is more 'common'.
