The Battle of Arsuf was a battle of the Third Crusade in which Christian forces led by Richard I of England defeated the forces of Ayyubid leader Saladin. The battle took place just outside of Arsuf, where Saladin attacked Richard's army as it was moving from Acre to Jaffa. Following a series of harassing attacks by Saladin's forces, battle was joined on the morning of 7 September 1191. Richard's army successfully resisted attempts to disrupt its cohesion until the Hospitallers charged; Richard
