Lord Foul's Bane - Wikipedia

It wasn't until I was several chapters into The Illearth War that I fully developed my opinion of Stephen Donaldson's first Thomas Covenant book Lord Foul's Bane. When Covenant says, "I'm a leper," which he says far too often, he is really making a statement about the human condition in general and our perception of ourselves in general.

The bad guy is named Lord Foul, ferchissakes. I hated everything about the first few chapters of this book. Once the main character forced himself on a girl, and then the author tried to make it a sympathetic moment (for the perpetrator), I hurled it at the wall in disgust and never finished reading it.
