The Law of Appreciation: A Thanksgiving Exercise. Burge.
November 18, 2020. A lot of people are saying that 2020 has been strange, out of the ordinary, challenging...and that's true.
But does that mean it has to affect your outlook in a negative way? Does it mean you have to throw in the towel and hole up until 2021 arrives?

The Wisdom Center - The Law of Recognition

Recognition is the process in some jurisdictions whereby a man is recognised as the father of a child in situations where there is no presumption of paternity, generally due to the mother being unwed. Historically due to the Roman law principle of Mater semper certa est this action was not available to mothers, but since the introduction of in-vitro fertilisation this has changed. It is an act that confers legitimacy on the child.
