The Music of Dolphins Quotes by Karen Hesse

Where, although she cannot stand on her tail or jump the waves, she is part of the music of dolphins. A girl raised by dolphins must choose between two worlds in this critically acclaimed novel about what it means to be a human being.

The Music of Dolphins by Karen Hesse - Scholastic

A wonderful book that isn't exactly typical, Music of the Dolphins explores what it is to be human- and what it is to be alive, two concepts which seem rather at odds with each other. Uniquely, the writing style of the book changes throughout, becoming more coherent as Mira learns English and more 'broken' as she becomes more distraught.
