The Second Curve Thoughts On

Handy suggests that we need “Second-Curve” thinking in most parts of our lives. An “S” curve first drops somewhat, then rises, only to drop again. The “second curve” is a new “S” that starts a new wave of events, is a challenge for orthodoxy, a call to “dream a little, think

The Second Curve: Thoughts on Reinventing Society: Handy ...

Handy believes that many things that work today will not continue to work into the future and argues that now is the time to embark on a ‘Second Curve’.

Handy believes that we curve is flattened so that hospitals can still function, a second curve can have a terrible peak. That is the economic wasteland ahead. The BBC notes "It can take a long time for the tide to go out - possibly years. It is clear the current strategy of shutting down large parts of society is not sustainable in the long-term.
