Talkzone: The Self Does Not Die

Dying to self is part of being born again; the old self dies and the new self comes to life (John 3:3-7). Not only are Christians born again when we come to salvation, but we also continue dying to self as part of the process of sanctification. As such, dying to self is both a one-time event and a lifelong process.

Book Review: The Self Does Not Die: Verified Paranormal ...

This element of self/personhood is not called to die. It will never be crucified. God wants to bloom, adorn, and bring to full maturity (in Christ) this "self" that is according to the reflection of the divine image in us. This is done through the new birth to remove as it were, the stain of sin on the image.

Dying to Self - What Does It Really Mean? - GraceUncovered

Dying to self is the continual denial of the flesh that occurs over a believer's lifetime, and the continual agreement with the Holy Spirit. Only a "new creation" will choose daily to die to self, to selfish desires and selfish will. The old man cannot obey God, nor does he want to (Ephesians 4:17-32; Romans 7).
