The Silent Gift. by Michael Landon Jr. and Cindy Kelley. When Mary Godwin Sinclair, a woman living in 1930s America, discovers that her abusive husband is planning to leave her for another woman, she takes his getaway money and their deaf/mute son and makes her own escape. >From the time she and Jack stow away in the back of a furniture truck to her infuriated husband close on her trail, the action in this book never stops.

The Silent Gift | Bookreporter.com

Jack's gentle spirit resonates with readers as well as Mary's false assumption that she is wholly responsible for the sorrow in her childhood home. A cast of other characters, including a lawyer bent on seeking revenge due to his misplaced grief and anger are all very relatable. Michael Landon Jr. is a gifted writer.
